

we the curious Volunteer with us

Photo credit: Lisa Whiting

Volunteer – Education team

Role information

Volunteer role summary

Role: Volunteer – Education workshop support

Location: We The Curious site

Department: Education team

Report to: Education communicators

Working hours: Various opportunities during term time
Tuesday to Friday between 9:45 & 16:50

What will you do in this role?

Role specific responsibilities

_Support our team of Education communicators in the setup and pack down of workshops

_Support our team of Education communicators in their delivery of workshops to education visitors

_Support can be in the form of handing out and collecting in of workshop equipment, delivery of small activities within workshops (full training given) or circulating the room and helping visitors as required

_Embody and demonstrate our inquisitive, playful, collaborative, progressive and creative values

What we're looking for from you

- ☐ Positive and enthusiastic about what we do as an educational charity
- ☐ Interested in working with education visitors from either schools or home educated via predominantly curriculum-based programming
- ☐ Committed to our values and to following our policies and procedures
- ☐ Reliable and committed

This may be a good role for you if you:

- ☐ Are looking to develop confidence and communication skills whilst working with groups of children and young adults
- ☐ Are passionate about inclusivity in science
- ☐ Want to gain experience in science engagement
- ☐ Enjoy engaging with young people and supporting them to be curious and playful
- ☐ Are looking for a more structured volunteering opportunity
- ☐ Are looking for term time volunteering opportunities with a range of durations
- ☐ Will be comfortable working in our learning spaces with groups of children and young adults with a wide range of backgrounds, abilities and needs